

The TaL Am School Leadership Institute December, 2011

Save the Date!!!

- When: Sunday, December 4, 2011, 12:30 P.M. to Wednesday, December 7, 2011, 1:30 P.M.
- Where: Grand Wilshire Hotel
West Orange, New Jersey
- For Whom: Heads of School/Principals; Assistant Principals/Jewish Studies Principals; Hebrew and/or Jewish Studies Coordinators
- Why: Research indicates that school educational leaders play a pivotal role in the success of curricular change in their schools. The TaL AM Leadership Institute is designed to provide participants with perspectives, knowledge, skills, and tools that will maximize their effectiveness in supporting the implementation of the TaL AM program in their respective institutions. The Institute also provides an opportunity for participants to share experiences with other school leaders from a variety of TaL AM schools.
- What: The program is designed to provide a school leadership perspective on the following topics:
- Teaching Hebrew as a Communicative Heritage Language
 - Curriculum Alignment and Scaffolding: TaL AM Curriculum Design
 - Brain-Based Learning: The Educational Research Underlying the TaL AM Program
 - From Acquisition to Creative Expression: The TaL AM Learning Process
 - "Educate the Child According to His Way": Differentiated Learning in TaL AM
 - Assessment: Monitoring Student Learning and Progress in the Four Modes of Communication
 - Supervision of Instruction: Creating a Supportive Environment for Success
 - A Unifying Language in Unique Voices: Adapting TaL AM to the School's Unique Needs
- Cost: Program fees, room, board, and up to $500 in airfare will be covered by a generous grant from the AVI CHAI Foundation.
- Registration: Space is limited. Admission will be on a revolving basis. For information on the application and registration process, please contact Edna Shaulov at ednas@talam.org or Stanley Peerless at stanp@talam.org.

Register Early - Don't Miss Out!!!
Last Institute Subsidized by AVI CHAI